

Location Map

Ronnie VanZant Memorial Park is a 90 acre complex that offers both active and passive recreational activities. Included in the park are two basketball courts, four tennis courts, one soccer field, one softball field, a playground, a volleyball court, a frisbee golf course, and 11 covered pavilions. Those who prefer to take it a little slower can enjoy a 3 acre fishing pond managed by the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission and a system of nature trails that encircle the pond.

About Ronnie Van Zant Park

Longtime Clay County resident Ronnie VanZant helped transcend the evolution of Southern Rock and Roll to our culture. His untimely death not only shortened a growth in the music industry but took a member of the community as well. As a means to memorialize her late husband, Judy VanZant donated funds to Clay County to purchase the property now known as Ronnie VanZant Memorial Park.
